

Divorce & Family Law Help Walk-In Service

Kane County Law Library & Self Help Legal Center

Limited Representation Disclaimer

Services Offered:

The self-represented litigant (you) understands that the Divorce & Family Law Help Walk-In Service is a joint effort of the Kane County Law Library and members of the Kane County Bar Association. The program's services are limited to legal advice, document review, and referrals for Kane County family law cases. The services provided to you are based on a number of factors including, but not limited to, the attorney's assessment of the legal matter based on your statements, your expectations, your financial situation, and the lawyer's understanding of the law.

Limitations of Services:

The volunteering lawyer can only meet with you for roughly 15 minutes, and you may use the service up to 4 times in a calendar year. This is to help ensure that as many people are able to have access to the service as possible. Assistance is limited to legal guidance, document review, and referrals for Kane County cases.

The self-represented litigant (you) understands that the Divorce & Family Law Help Walk-In Service does not provide representation in court and under no circumstance does a volunteer attorney guarantee the outcome of any case. You also understand that due to the complexity of certain matters, some cases are beyond the scope of services that the Divorce & Family Law Help Walk-In Service provides.

Volunteering lawyers have the right to refuse you service based on the limited scope of their knowledge in a specific area of law, a conflict of interest, rude and/or inappropriate behavior, and/or your abuse of program parameters and policies.

The self-represented litigant (you) understands that priority will be given to those self-represented litigants who have been sent by a judge to utilize the service and must immediately return to court.

Read and Understood Terms and Conditions of Service:

The self-represented litigant (you) has read the above information and understands the limits and conditions of legal services provided by the Divorce & Family Law Help Walk-In Service.
