

Lawyer in the Library
Gail Borden Public Library
Limited Representation Disclaimer

Services Offered:

The self-represented litigant (you) understands that the Lawyer in the Library is a joint effort of the Gail Borden Public Library, the Kane County Law Library & Self Help Legal Center and members of the Kane County Bar Association. The program's services are limited to legal advice, document review, and referrals for Kane and Cook county cases. The services provided to you are based on a number of factors including, but not limited to, the volunteering lawyer's assessment of the legal matter based on your statements, your expectations, your financial situation and the volunteering lawyer's understanding of the law.

Limitations of Services:

The self-represented litigant (you) understands that the Lawyer in the Library at Gail Borden Public Library does not provide representation in court and under no circumstance does a volunteer lawyer guarantee the outcome of any case. You also understand that due to the complexity of certain matters, certain cases are beyond the scope of services that the Lawyer in the Library at Gail Borden Public Library provides.

Volunteering lawyers have the right to refuse you service based on the limited scope of their knowledge in a specific area of law, a conflict of interest, rude and/or inappropriate behavior, and /or your abuse of program parameters and policies.

Read and Understood Terms and Conditions of Service:

The self-represented litigant (you) has read the above information and understands the limits and conditions of legal services provided by the Lawyer in the Library at Gail Borden Public Library.
